Disability Information

Girl Scouts of Eastern Missouri welcomes the participation of all girls and adults and will make reasonable accommodations to person with disabilities. To help GSEM better serve your child, please indicate whether the participant is in need of a reasonable accommodation in order to fully participate in the program. Kathy Dabrowski, Senior Director, Girl and Adult Development, will contact you to answer questions and discuss accommodation requests. You can also contact her directly at 314.592.2324 or kdabrowski@girlscoutsem.org.

Estimated costs associated with the 2013 JrFLL season for new teams:

$50 National FIRST Team Registration Fee
$150 Official Kit of Parts (capitol investment, reuse every year)
$150 WEDO (capitol investment, reuse every year)
$25 Showcase entry fee (REQUIRED)
$150 World Festival entry fee (OPTIONAL)
$TBD Supplies and t-shirts (optional)

Estimated total would be $500-$600 for a new team
($150-$200 for subsequent years)

Through community support, GSEM is able to support a limited number of teams for the robotics season. Team support will be allocated on a first-come, first-served basis, and GSEM will notify your team in August if they are funded.

By signing below, you and your team agree to the following terms:

- GSEM staff will provide coach and team support to the extent possible
- GSEM will provide team t-shirts with appropriate sponsor logos for up to six girls and two coaches
- GSEM will provide button supplies and the option for teams to check out the program button maker (pin-on buttons are often traded among teams at robotics competitions)
- My team will participate in a showcase event in spring 2014
- My team will participate in at least two outreach activities that will reach an additional 50 youth (examples include school presentations or neighborhood demonstration), in order to share my team's accomplishments and the benefits of participating in robotics
- My team will provide all paperwork by stated deadlines, including, but not limited to surveys, amount of time spent on project, photo releases and photos

Once the team application is approved, coaches will be sent a comprehensive team agreement and required forms. Equipment will be issued upon receipt of the team agreement, photo releases and pre-surveys. Please note: funding is generally approved in August but the JrFLL season does not start until January.
