At Gateway Arch National Park

Finding Common Ground

Gather at the newly renovated Old Courthouse in downtown St. Louis to learn and practice the art of debate, compromise, and mediation as we explore ways to find common ground. The final session takes place at the Thomas Eagleton US Courthouse in downtown St. Louis. This half-day workshop is facilitated by National Park staff and guest speakers. This is a FREE program. Pre-visit requirements and details will be provided.

Public Speaker

Speaking in public is a powerful way to connect with people. Scouts will learn the skills of public speaking and in the end “perform” for the group. This workshop takes place at the visitor center at Gateway Arch National Park. This half-day workshop is facilitated by National Park staff. This is a FREE program. Pre-visit requirements and details will be provided.
